

REMARKS

This paper is filed in response to the non-final Office Action of May 12, 2009 in which claims 1-6, 8-12 and 14-33 were rejected. Claims 9, 29-30, 31 and 34-28 have been cancelled while new claims 39-53 have been added.

The above amendment corresponds to one recently made in JP based on the same document (WO 02/45372) to which the U.S. Examiner refers and which amendment made the claims allowable in Japan. See the IDS filed January 27, 2009 disclosing the Japanese Office Action which the Examiner has apparently drawn on (see numbered paragraph 2 on page 2 of the Detailed Action).

The subject matter in the amendment is taken from the embodiments described in the as-filed application, see description starting from page 13 line 26, and onwards.

The argument in favor of the patentability of the amended independent claims simply is that the cited documents either alone or in combination do not disclose each of the features in the amended independent claims.

The dependency problems pointed out by the Examiner in numbered paragraphs 3 and 4 have been corrected by changing claim 8 to depend from claim 1 and by cancelling claim 9. The "such as" language has been cancelled from claims 1 and 21-25. Withdrawal of the objections to claims 8, 9, and to claims 1-6, 8-12, 14-15 is requested.

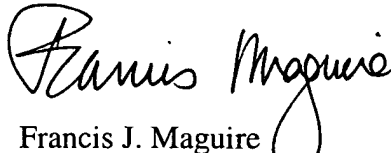

The 35 U.S.C. 112 (second paragraph) rejection on account of the language "the streaming media" in the independent claims has been obviated by the above amendment and withdrawal thereof is requested.

A petition for a two-month extension of time along with an extension fee of $490.00 is enclosed. If the fee is missing or inadequate, the Commissioner is authorized to deduct the fee of any shortfall from our Deposit Account No. 23-0442. If the petition is missing, please consider this paper as a petition for the correct extension period.

It is believed that extra claims fees are due on account of the total number of claims now being forty-two in number as compared to the thirty-eight total claims previously paid for (there are no added independent claims beyond the six already paid for), but if that belief is incorrect, or if the fee transmittal is missing or inadequate, the Commissioner is authorized to deduct any extra claims fees due from our Deposit Account No. 23-0442.

The objections and rejections of the final Office Action of May 12, 2009, having been obviated by amendment or shown to be inapplicable, withdrawal thereof is requested and passage of claims 1-6, 8, 10-12, 14-28, 32-33 and 39-53 to issue is solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
